CHEF BRIAN HENSON

The lively, energetic atmosphere at Big Rock Chop House is a fitting complement to the high quality that comes from the kitchen. Chef Brian Henson's 14 years of experience at several renowned restaurants, including working as Wolfgang Puck's executive sous chef, garnered him the executive chef position at Big Rock Chop House, overseeing the restaurant's 4-star, award-winning menu.

Henson has skillfully crafted menus to please the most discerning diners, as evidenced by the extensive list of awards he and his restaurants have received. From "best of show" and culinary Olympic medals to "best restaurant" recognition, Henson's commendations are a testament to his creative and technically astute culinary skills, as well as his passion for pleasing those he serves — talents that enable him to proficiently serve Big Rock Chop House's upscale guests.
